Monday March 25th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Luke 13:1-9 Repentance is not always an easy thing. But we are reminded of its importance and the dangers of not repenting.

Question: Are you willing to begin a regular time of repenting? Since this Scripture reminds us of its importance and the reminder that we are given another chance, don't you want to incorporate it in your life?

Tuesday March 26th (I took time to pray today)

Read: 2 Corinthians 5:17 If you belong to Christ, you become a new person. Our old lives are gone and a new life begins. What great news.

Question: Do you see the correlation with repentance? When we repent, we will receive forgiveness and that sin no longer exists. Do you believe that belonging to Christ makes it easier to repent? Do you want a new life and want to let the old life of sin behind?

Wednesday March 27th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Jeremiah 24:7 So not only do we receive changed lives, we can also receive changed hearts. But not hearts that are changed the way we want them to be changed, but ones that will return to God wholeheartedly.

Question: How do you see your heart? As merely an organ pumping blood to all the parts of our body? Or do you see it as part of who God has called us to be?

Thursday March 28th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Ezekiel 36:26 Another Scripture about what God wants to do with our hearts. He wants to change them from stony stubborn hearts and make them tender, responsive hearts.

Question: Are you okay with God doing whatever He wants to do with your heart? Do you trust Him enough to give Him your heart completely? Do you want to remain stony and stubborn or do you want to be tender and responsive?

Friday March 29th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Psalm 51:10 I love this Scripture. It is the desire of my heart for God to create in me a clean heart and to renew a loyal spirit in me.

Question: Is this the desire of your heart? What would it take to get yourself to this place of desire? Would you trust God completely with your heart so that you can be in a right relationship with Him?
