Sunday June 9th (I took time to pray today)

Read: John 14:8-27 In this Scripture is a huge promise that Jesus made to His Disciples. He said, we only need to have faith in Jesus to do the same things that Jesus was doing on earth.

Question: How does that make you feel to know that you can do the same things Jesus did if we only have faith in Him? Have you put this to the test in your own life? If not, why not?

Monday, June 10th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Psalm 147:5 A great statement. Our Lord is great and mighty in power and His understanding has no limit.

Question: Do you believe this about our Lord? How does that statement make you feel? Are you willing to memorize this verse so that you remember it in times of trouble?

Tuesday, June 11th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Psalm 139:4 God knows our thoughts before our words are on our tongues.

Question: Does this concern you, knowing God knows your thoughts? Are you willing to change the things you are thinking so that they are lined up with God's desires?

Wednesday, June 12th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Hebrews 4:13 Again we learn nothing is hidden from God's sight and that we must give account to God.

Question: Do you think that the fact that we must give account to God and asking for forgiveness is downplayed? Are you willing to make this part of a daily routine? A weekly routine?

Thursday June 13th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Isaiah 40:28 God never grows tired or weary and His understanding of all things no one can fully understand.

Question: Have you gathered from this week, a greater understanding of who God is? Do you desire to grow closer through study and quiet time to understand Him more fully?

Friday June 14th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Acts 1:24 The Disciples prayed to the Lord so that they would know His heart in a decision they were trying to make.

Question: Do you ask God continually for His input when you are making important decisions? Do you understand that God cares about every part of your life? What can you do to make talking to God a daily part of your life?

Saturday, June 15th (I took time to pray today)

Read: Jeremiah 23:24 God always sees us and we can not hide from Him.

Question: Do you find this comforting or upsetting? You can look at it either way but isn't it better to look at it as comforting? Can you sense God's love for you as you have read these passages this week?
