

Study Guide

November 24, 2019

Sunday, November 24th (I took time to pray today )

Read: Luke 23:33-43 This Scripture is the story of the crucifixion.

Questions: How did it feel to read this story right before the Christmas season? Are you prepared to reflect on God's love for you this Advent season?

Monday, November 25th (I took time to pray today )

Read: John 6:38 Jesus reminds us that He did not come down to earth to do His own will but the will of Him who sent Him.

Questions: What do you think about this Scripture? Are you that committed to Jesus that you do only His will and not your own?

Tuesday, November 26th (I took time to pray today )

Read: 1 Timothy 1:15 Paul reminds us that Christ came into the world to save sinners and that he is the chief sinner.

Questions: How well do you accept forgiveness for your sins? Do you constantly play over in your mind how sinful you are? Can you allow this Scripture to remind you that Jesus came to save you from your sins?

Wednesday, November 27th (I took time to pray today )

Read: John 12:46 Jesus claims that He has come into the world as a light and whoever believes in Him should not abide in darkness.

Questions: Do you recognize that your sinful nature has you abiding in darkness? Do you also recognize that Jesus came as a light to lighten up the darkness by offering forgiveness?

Thursday, November 28th (I took time to pray today )
Happy Thanksgiving!!!!

Read: Hebrews 2:14-17 The reminder that Jesus had to be made like us so that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God and be our redemption for our sins.

Questions: Isn't this a great day to be thankful to God for Jesus? Will you take time today to show God how thankful you are to Him?

Friday, November 29th (I took time to pray today )

Read: Luke 2:10 The angel said to the shepherds "Do not be afraid,...I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people."

Questions: Does this Scripture remind you that the announcement that Jesus was coming was something special? Does it bring back the reminder that this was a good thing for the people then and for us today?

Saturday, November 30th (I took time to pray today )

Read: Mark 10:45 The Son of man did not come to be served but to serve and give His life a ransom for many.

Questions: Do you fully comprehend that Jesus came and gave His life for You too? What does this mean to you and for you?

On The Cross

Prayers For The Week

Sunday: Lord, thank you for Your reminder of what Your death on the cross means. Let me respond to the love that You have for me. Amen.

Monday: Jesus, I surrender my life to You. Show me how to turn more and more of my life over to Your will and way. Amen.

Tuesday: God, thank You for the love You have for me. It never gets old hearing about that love through Your crucifixion. Amen.

Wednesday: Lord, thank You that You are a forgiving God and being in relationship with You keeps me out of the darkness. Amen.

Thursday: Jesus, thank you that You came to redeem me from my sinfulness. You have continually been a God of mercy and love. Amen.

Friday: God, thank you for this reminder that You sent Your Son into a hurting world. What great news to be reminded of. Amen.

Saturday: Holy Spirit, guide me so that I may be more like Jesus. I desire to serve rather than be served. Amen.
