

Study Guide

May 10, 2020

Sunday, May 10th

(I took time to pray today )

Read: John 14:1-14 This Scripture says that Jesus is going to prepare a place for us. Also the well known Scripture of Jesus saying “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Questions: Are you beginning to understand Jesus’ role in our salvation? Does this change anything for you and how you address Jesus?

Monday, May 11th

(I took time to pray today )

Read: Acts 7:55-60 This Scripture is when Stephen is soon to be stoned and claims as he looks up to heaven that he saw Jesus standing at the right hand of the Father.

Questions: Do you see this Scripture as further proof that Jesus rose from the dead and sits at the right hand of the Father? How does that change things for you?

Tuesday, May 12th

(I took time to pray today )

Read: Psalm 31:1-5 David says in this Psalm that the Lord is his refuge and asks to be kept from the trap that is set for him.

Questions: Have you seen the Lord as your refuge? Do you trust that He will keep you safe? Have you been asking for His protection in these times?

Wednesday, May 13th

(I took time to pray today )

Read: Psalm 15—16 Psalm 15 talks about the blameless character of God and Psalm 16 talks about David’s satisfaction with God.

Questions: Can you put into words how you have seen God Work in your life? Have you considered sharing this with others? Will you do this?

Thursday, May 14th

(I took time to pray today )

Read: 1 Peter 2:2-10 This Scripture talks about discriminating between the rich and the poor and the benefits of being poor.

Questions: Do you usually show favoritism? How do you do at loving your neighbor?

Friday, May 15th

(I took time to pray today )

Read: John 14:12 “Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these because I am going to the Father.”

Questions: Don’t you love the idea of this Scripture verse? What greater things would you love to do in Jesus’ name?

Saturday, May 16th

(I took time to pray today )

Read: Matthew 20:26-28 This Scripture reminds us “whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant and whoever wants to be first must be your slave.”

Questions: How well do you do at being a servant or a slave? Do you think the world looks at this differently than us? How can we show the world that we are different?

Notes: today I pray

Prayers For The Week

Sunday: Jesus, thank you that You are the way to the Father. Give me better understanding of what that means for my relationship with You. Amen.

Monday: Father, thank you that You loved us so much that You gave Your Son for us. Let me not take this for granted. Amen.

Tuesday: Lord, thank you that You will keep me from harm and that You are my refuge and strength. Allow me to see this in new ways. Amen.

Wednesday: God, I do recognize that You have revealed Yourself to me in so many ways. Help me to share this freely with another, specially someone who is walking in fear during these times. Amen.

Thursday: Jesus, forgive me for the times that I have not reached out to help someone less fortunate than me. Show me, especially in this time, how I might be of help to another. Amen.

Friday: Jesus, thank you for the promise that if I believe in You I will do greater things because of what You did on our behalf. Open my eyes to see what is available to me. Amen.

Saturday: Jesus, teach me how to be a servant and a slave to others as You were. Give me what I need to do this with grace and love. Amen.
